"MILLION DOLLAR DOLL"

An aggregation of pretty girls kept in constant motion by rhythmic music, with changes of garment for every appearance that denoted the keen sense of stage-managerial art, and these enhanced by keen humor, kept the large audience intensely amused for more than two hours last night at the production of the "Million Dollar Doll."

The quips of the negro comedian were bright, natural and smooth, and his work was by long odds the best individual effort of the show, Lep Myer standing out as a starring light in the firmament of other strivers after approbation.

The "Million Dollar Doll", in the person of Hazel Marshall, was right good to look at, and she walked the stage very well indeed, but she was no doll, in fact she was what might be termed "a load" for poor Fred Hall, when he tried to ventriloquise. Her voice, too, was a strong tone between a falsetto and a baritone, which, however, well fitted one song "silvery moon," that was well sung and equally well received.

Other than the black faced man we would say that Charles Stanley as the Ballyho man, was the most appreciated. He danced beautifully and made the best appearance when he came over the footlights and sung "Hello-I've been looking for you", a really attractive and musical ditty. Perhaps the act that got the most applause was the quartette, being due largely to the patriotic nature of the songs, for none of the men had good voices, but the padding of Lep Myer, which produced the laughs, and the popular airs was bound to put this quartette across well.

The fancy dancing of Hall and Pauline was really very fine, and it did receive the recognition due a very artistic bit of work.

It is unnecessary to mention the other principals. All did their work according to rote, and should be satisfied with the reception accorded them, and the chorus, made up of sprigs of women, none having apparently attained their majority, with the exception of perhaps a couple, danced well and strained out the chorus number in the regular hard stage voices that we have accepted as au fait.

Taken all in all the show was a creditable production and satisfied the audience. It was full of action, as though it were one of George Cohan's production, and thin thread of plot was sufficient to keep the interest going from one act to the next.

A WOMAN'S BACK

The Advice of This Scotland Neck Woman is of Certain Value

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains.

Oftimes 'tis the kidneys' fault. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective.

Many Scotland Neck women know this.

Read what one has to say about it: Lennie Overton, Eighth St., says: "About a year ago I had a lot of trouble with my kidneys and back. My back was so sore and lame, I could hardly sit up and when I bent over, it was all I could do to straighten. I also had headaches and dizzy spells. I used two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they relieved me of all symptoms of kidney trouble. Since then, I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills one or two times when my back has given me trouble and they have given me fine relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Lennie Overton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

FORGOT WHAT HE NEEDED

From the Republican, Mt. Gilead, Ohio: The editor had an interesting experience some time ago, when asked for a copy of the Morrow County Republican. He scrutinized it carefully when a copy was handed him, and then said: "Now I know!" "What is it you are looking for," we inquired. "My wife sent me after a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and I forgot the name. I went to several stores and the clerks named over everything in the line on the shelf except 'Chamberlain's.' I'll try again, and I'll never go home without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." The Republican would suggest to the proprietors of stores, that they post their clerks, and never let them substitute. Customers lost faith in stores where substituting is permitted, to say nothing of the injustice to makers of good goods and the disappointment of customers.

SAYS IT'S WORTH BIG SUM TO HIM

Declares Tanlac Restored Health After 20 Years of Suffering

"It's worth thousands of dollars to feel like I do now, since Tanlac has taken away the trouble that kept me in misery for the last twenty years," said M. B. Daniel, a well-known former living on Route 2 out of Abbeville, Georgia a few days ago.

"When a man suffers as long as I did, he gets to the place where he feels like he's no more good in this world," he continued, "and that's the way I had begun to feel. Long ago I got so weak I couldn't carry on my work for spells of stomach trouble and nervousness just made it torture for me to eat and the trouble I had wouldn't let me sleep at all. My heart acted queer until I was afraid it was going to stop. "I'd been well enough satisfied to have had my sufferings relieved, but that's not all Tanlac did. I've gained eleven pounds besides. I can eat as heartily as if I had never had stomach trouble and I can do as much work in a day as I ever could. I just feel like a new man."

Tanlac is sold in Scotland Neck by E. T. Whitehead Co.
